

Rosebank Fulham SW6

On the 5th floor of the popular and well-placed Rosebank development on the banks of the River Thames, this well-appointed, light and airy two double bedroom flat has remarkable views across the river and up towards Hammersmith Bridge. This Share of Freehold apartment has two double bedrooms which have direct river views, together with a good sized living room, separate kitchen and study with direct access to the private balcony. The property comes with an abundance of wardrobes and built in storage and there is a covered car parking space.

There is also a large, lockable storage unit on the ground floor. Rosebank is a modern gated development close to the River Thames with attractive communal gardens. It's near Bishops Park as well as the boutique shops of Fulham Palace Road and Fulham High Street. There are excellent transport links and it's less than a mile to Hammersmith. Bus numbers 74, 220 and 430 offer plentiful services into the West End and North London and the A3 and the M4 are easily accessible.
